

Australian Student Christian Movement

Climate Change: what next?

Faith, Powerlessness &
Movement-building

Sat, 17 August 2013

Trinity College, the University of Melbourne

Cost: $ 40 waged / $20 Student/unwaged

<http://ascm-climate-change.eventbrite.com.au/>

Supported by:

TRINITY COLLEGE
THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE

Program

- Keynote speaker: climate scientist, Barrie Pittock, on climate science, risks due to global warming, and social responsibility
- Cath James from the Uniting Church on "Signs of environmental hope in the church"
- A speaker from the Australian Youth Climate Coalition on "how a movement can change climate change".
- Jacques Boulet from Borderlands on the changes to our lifestyles that are needed to address climate change
- Worship and reflection with Sandy Yule
- Pat Long from Earthsong on what is going on when we risk destroying the very system on which we depend for survival

Themes

- What is the current state of the climate debate?
- Where do we find signs of hope?
- What is happening in the climate movement?
- What do faith perspectives have to say about how we respond to climate change?
- What is the meaning of "repentance or atonement" in relation to climate change?
- What changes need to be made now to prevent catastrophic climate change? What would this roadmap include?
- How does climate change link to the history of colonisation of Indigenous Peoples?
- How do we respond as people of faith, Christian and otherwise?

"God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good." -Gen 1:31